6.30.25 » Second Quarter Fact Sheet

Investment Objective

The WesMark Small Company Fund seeks to achieve capital appreciation. It invests in equity securities of small-capitalization companies with prospects for above-average growth potential or where significant company or industry changes are taking place, such as new products, services, methods of distribution, or overall business restructuring.

Why WesMark Funds?

Experienced portfolio management team

- The portfolio management team has extensive investment experience and depth of knowledge;
- Our integrated team of portfolio managers, analysts, and traders uses fundamentals-based, relative-value analysis to identify opportunities and execute trades.

Portfolio management strategy

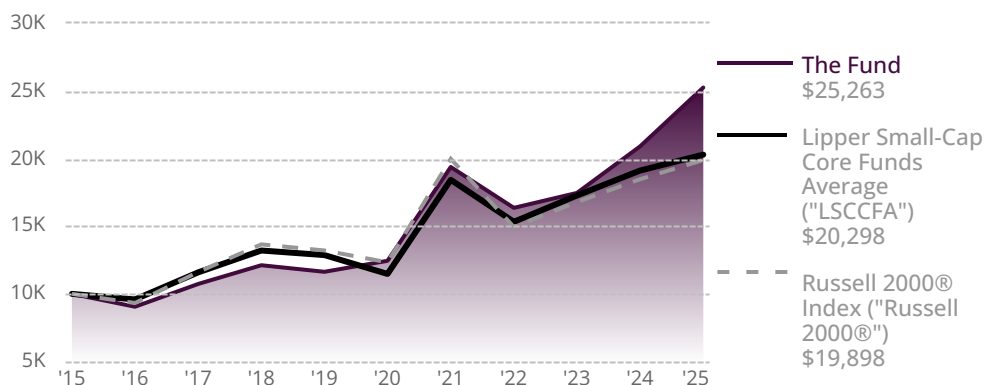

- Fund seeks to provide growth of investors' capital through an actively managed portfolio composed primarily of small companies' stocks;
- Invests in a combination of rapidly growing companies in high-growth sectors offering sustainable competitive advantages, while trading at reasonable valuations;
- Identify companies where significant changes are taking place such as new products, services, distribution methods, or overall business restructuring.

No-load structure

- All of your investment goes to work for you because no sales charge ("load") is deducted when you purchase WesMark Fund shares.

Performance data quoted represent past performance, which is no guarantee of future results. Investment return and principal value will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost.

Mutual-fund performance changes over time, and current performance may be lower or higher than shown here. For current performance to the most recent month-end and for after-tax returns or for more complete information, call 1-800-864-1013 to speak with a WesMark Funds representative.

The Russell 2000® measures the performance of the 2,000 smallest companies in the Russell 3000® Index, which represents approximately 10% of the total market capitalization of the Russell 3000® Index. The index is unmanaged and unlike the Fund, is not affected by cash flows. The Russell 2000® is not adjusted to reflect sales charges, expenses, or other fees that the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) requires to be reflected in the Fund's performance. It is not possible to invest directly in an index.

The LSCCFA is the average of the total returns of the 30 largest qualifying mutual funds (based on net assets) in the Lipper Small-Cap classification. Lipper averages do not reflect sales charges. It is not possible to invest directly in an average.

Investments by Capitalization

Small Cap is defined as similar to the Russell 2000 or the S&P 600 at the time shares are purchased.

* The Fund is a managed portfolio. Holdings are subject to change and do not constitute a recommendation or solicitation to buy or sell a particular security. Current and future portfolio holdings are subject to risk.

Mutual funds are not bank deposits, are not guaranteed by WesBanco or its affiliates, and are not insured or guaranteed by the FDIC, the Federal Reserve Board, or any other government agency. Investment in mutual funds involves risk, including possible loss of the principal amount invested.

The WesMark Small Company Fund is the successor to a common trust fund managed by the Adviser. Quoted performance data includes performance for the corresponding common trust fund during periods before the Fund's commencement of operations on August 8, 2000, as adjusted to reflect the Fund's anticipated expenses. The common trust fund was not registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("1940 Act") and therefore was not subject to certain restrictions imposed by the 1940 Act. If the common trust fund has been registered under the 1940 Act, the performance may have been adversely affected.

Performance shown is before tax.

Total return represents the change in the value of an investment after reinvesting all income and capital gains.

See the prospectus for other fees and expenses that apply to a continued investment in the Fund.

WesBanco Investment Department, a division of WesBanco Bank, Inc., is the Investment Adviser to WesMark Funds. The WesMark Funds are distributed by Ultimus Fund Distributors, LLC. WesMark Funds and Ultimus Fund Distributors, LLC are not affiliated.

DEFINITIONS:

Price/Earnings Ratio represents equity securities within the Fund's portfolio, and is not intended to demonstrate Fund growth, income earned by the Fund, or distributions made by the Fund.

The S&P SmallCap 600® is a benchmark index designed to measure the performance of the U.S. small-cap equity universe.

IMPORTANT RISK CONSIDERATIONS:

STOCK MARKET RISKS: The value of equity securities will rise and fall, and these fluctuations could be a sustained trend or a drastic movement.

Small-company stocks may be less liquid and subject to greater price volatility than large-capitalization stocks.
